Case No. CJ-2017-1191

MOTION FOR ORDER DIRECTING DEFENDANT RANDY JAY DOUD TO APPEAR AND ANSWER AS TO ASSETS AND INJUNCTION FORBIDDING
TRANSFER OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

Plaintiff, Oklahoma Department of Securities, moves the Court for an order requiring the judgment debtor, Randy Jay Doud (Doud), to appear with certain records on a date to be set by the Court and answer concerning his property and assets, and enjoining Doud from transferring, selling, concealing or otherwise disposing of any of his non-exempt property, pursuant to 12 O.S. § 842. In support of this motion, Plaintiff shows the Court as follows:

1. Plaintiff is a judgment creditor, having obtained judgment against Doud in the above-entitled cause on June 15, 2017.
2. Doud was ordered to pay restitution to any and all investors who purchased Okie limited liability company interests, a Money Metals Investment Contract, and/or an Investment Agreement, as defined in the petition. The restitution is currently unpaid. The investors are to be identified and the amounts to be paid to such persons are to be determined by this Court.
3. Doud is a resident of Pontotoc County, Oklahoma, and is available for service in said county.

4. Pending a hearing on assets, there is a danger that Doud will attempt to transfer, sell, conceal, and/or otherwise dispose of property in an attempt to place it beyond the reach of creditors, and this Court should enter an order enjoining Doud from so doing.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays as follows:

1. that this Court enter an order directing Doud to appear and answer concerning his property and assets on a date to be set by this Court;

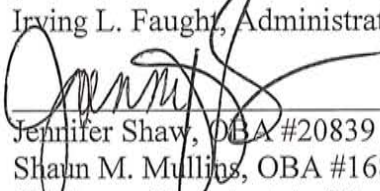

2. that Doud be further ordered to bring with him certain books, records and other matters in order that a full and complete hearing on assets can be held; and

3. that this Court enter an order forthwith enjoining Doud from transferring, selling, concealing or otherwise disposing of any non-exempt property pending a hearing on assets and until further order of this Court.

Respectfully submitted,
